DECLARATION OF S. ALBERT-BLOSSER

I, S. Albert-Blosser, do declare and state as follows:

1. I am a Paralegal Specialist at the United States Department of Justice, Federal Bureau of Prisons (BOP), Federal Correctional Complex, Allenwood, Pennsylvania. I have been employed with the BOP since September 1997. I have worked as a Paralegal Specialist since April 2001. As a result of my position, I have access to Bureau of Prisons' files, including computer files maintained in the ordinary course of business on inmates incarcerated at FCC-Allenwood.
2. I have reviewed the Motion for Preliminary Injunction filed by the Plaintiff, inmate John Kenney, Federal Register Number 05238-041, in which he seeks placement in general population.

3. The Bureau of Prisons has established an administrative remedy procedure through which an inmate can seek formal review of any complaint regarding any aspect of his imprisonment, if less formal procedures do not resolve the matter, pursuant to 28 C.F.R. §542.13.
4. In order to exhaust appeals under the Administrative Remedy Procedure for inmates, an inmate must first raise his/her complaint to their unit team through an Informal Resolution Attempt. If the concern is not informally resolved, the inmate may file an appeal to the Warden of the institution where he is confined. He may then further appeal an adverse decision to the Regional Director and Central Office of the Federal Bureau of Prisons. See 28 C.F.R. § 542, et seq. No administrative remedy appeal is considered to have been finally exhausted until it has been denied by the Bureau of Prisons' Central Office.
5. In the ordinary course of business, computerized indexes of all formal administrative appeals filed by inmates are maintained by the Institution, Regional and Central Offices so that rapid verification may be made as to whether an inmate has exhausted administrative appeals on a particular issue. Informal resolution attempts are not retained by a computerized index.

6. On October 31, 2001, I conducted a search of the records to determine whether or not the Plaintiff had exhausted available administrative remedies regarding the issue he raised in his Motion for Preliminary Injunction. This review has revealed that the Plaintiff has not exhausted available administrative remedies for the issue that he has raised in his injunction. I have attached the Plaintiff's Sentry transaction sheet on administrative remedies as Attachment 1 to this Declaration.
7. Specifically, the Plaintiff has filed a total of 28 administrative remedies, two of which are related to general population housing.
8. Sentry computer records indicate that the Plaintiff filed a BP-9 (administrative remedy number 233400-F1) regarding placement in general population on February 21, 2001. The Sentry computer record further indicates that this administrative remedy was rejected on the same date for failing to submit a complete set of the request (4 carbonized copies). (See Attachment 1, page 14).
9. On February 28, 2001, Sentry computer records indicate that the Plaintiff filed a second BP-9 (administrative remedy number 233400-F2) regarding placement in general population.

The Sentry computer record further indicates that this administrative remedy was closed and denied on March 15, 2001. (See Attachment 1, page 14).

10. Records show that the Plaintiff chose not to file a BP-10 with the Regional Office regarding his placement in general population.
11. Therefore, the Plaintiff has not exhausted the administrative remedy process regarding the issue he raises in his injunction.

I certify that the documents attached to this declaration are true and correct copies of documents kept in the ordinary course of business by the Federal Bureau of Prisons. I further declare under penalty of perjury in accordance with the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1746 that the above is accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief.
